

Trinity Methodist Theological College

Principal

The College is seeking a person (lay or ordained) to fill the role of Principal from the 1st February 2015.

Trinity Methodist Theological College is the tertiary education provider in the Methodist Church of New Zealand, Te Hāhi Weteriana o Aotearoa.

We are a multi-ethnic Church which lives out its mission and ministry within a bicultural partnership and context.

This position is key to the future direction of ordained and lay leadership within the Church. It is a dynamic role requiring visionary leadership matched with the ability to initiate and deliver relevant education, training and development programmes in a climate of continuous improvement. The Principal we are seeking should be a competent educator and theologian with empathy for the Wesleyan tradition of Christian life and witness and with demonstrated leadership in a dynamic and changing environment.
